Much of the afternoon I spent organizing and bill paying here at 13 Park Place. My objective is to get as many loose ends tied up here in my front room as possible. I must get myself completely organized. It's easier on the nervous system. Tried to reach RTP and the RTP family had guests at the time and so RTP said he would call back. Our paths crossed, because it is now after midnight and he and Ann will doubtless leave for Hershey in the early A.M. Tomorrow or Thursday we will know, hopefully, if the tumor is malignant or not, and if it is operable. Heaven help us.

7 PM - Tomame came by on his way to his photography course (the one he is teaching) at the Y. He wanted to borrow a projector. He may drive to Swanton tomorrow to do an errand and I may go with him in order to pick up the copies of the NPB & LHR - proofs that I am having printed on Mulberry Street.

8:15 - Jean Colville called. She is recruiting members for the CHS & M. She told me that I should be a Democrat. As we talked, JoB knocked on the door (about 8:30 PM) and she took her leave. John and I visited for a good two hours. Very pleasant indeed. He had just been waked from a nap and asked to do an errand (buy some coffee) for his mother. "I saw your light on and so I thought I would see what you were up to," said he as I let him in. What did we talk about? He encourages me to apply to be a substitute and I told him I had picked up an application today. I told him about the school articles that I will write and he said that when open house is held at Vo-Tech, that he will take me to Vo-Tech with him and show me around.

Tomorrow, Connie will telephone Lucarelli and tell him that John must be given permission to drive his motorcycle down to Vo-Tech. Connie is a real fighter and very frequently goes to
